

CASE COORDINATOR

CASE COORDINATOR, COMMUNITY HOUSING PROGRAM (FULL TIME - ROTATION)

You have a passion for helping women move from homelessness to stability. Your empathetic and non-judgmental approach allows you to easily build rapport and a trusting relationship whereby together you create goals and plans for clients to move forward in their lives. You might have to deal with crisis from time to time however you don't work "in crisis". Although thoughtful and proactive in your approach doesn't mean you can't roll with emerging issues.

WHAT MOVES YOU

- Being part of systems that make sense: "Housing First" philosophy and housing models
- Supporting others to live independently and thrive
- Flexing your calm, professional perspective when dealing with conflict and risk situations

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Work from a strength based approach that addresses the whole person
- Ensure that complete, accurate and professional documentation meets the organizational requirements
- Provide crisis intervention and work alongside clients with complex needs
- Work a 10 hours' day shift on a rotation basis (37.5 hours per week – includes 1 weekend per month)
- Perform on call duties and support Client Support Workers when required

WHAT YOU'VE DONE

- Bachelor of Social Work, Psychology or Human Services and a minimum of 2 years' specific experience working with mental health consumers (focusing in homelessness, addictions, trauma, domestic abuse and physical health challenges)
- Professional registration with appropriate professional body is required. A combination of relevant Diploma and 4 years of specific experience may be considered
- Case Management, crisis intervention and supportive counseling
- Valid Driver's License and reliable vehicle with appropriate insurance

If you want to work to change lives, we want to meet you.
