WHAT MOVES YOU

- Being a part of a team that focuses on enhancing the caregiver capacity and supporting healthy child development.
- You demonstrate thoughtfulness in decision-making.
- Engaging groups of people and building them through your great interpersonal skills.
- Although we might work with people experiencing crisis, we do not work in crisis.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Deliver accessible, strengths-focused, and evidence-based programming in network communities.
- Provide coaching, guidance and strategies to parents and caregivers on different issues,
- Support the healthy growth and development of children by delivering developmentally appropriate activities.
- Provide and deliver activities in a timely and structured fashion.
- Use program technology to communicate and record information as required.
- Aim to exceed program expectations in alignment with the program's designated approach(s).
- Complete documentation, ensure reports are accurate, and recorded in a timely manner.
- Maintain knowledge of relevant best practices and resources (within and outside of the FRN).
- Ensure service delivery is aligned with YW Calgary's vision, mission, and practice framework.
- This role involves some evening and weekend work hours. Involves travel throughout network so access to a vehicle is required.

WHAT YOU'VE DONE

- Diploma or degree in Social Work, Child and Youth Care, or Nursing with registration with the appropriate regulatory body.
- At least two years of experience working with children, youth, and families.
- Understanding of child development, brain science and solid knowledge of child maltreatment.
- Ability to deliver programming in a variety of community settings.
- Experience working effectively with diverse communities.
- Engage with families in a manner that is responsive to and respectful of diversity.
- Excellent communication and rapport building skills and deliver presentations.
- Perform duties and engage colleagues in an ethical manner that adheres to relevant standards of practice.
- Current first aid and CPR required.

If you want to work to change lives, we want to meet you.
